

NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD
BACKPAY CLAIMANT IDENTIFICATION

1. NAME OF CLAIMANT (Mr., Mrs., Miss., Ms.)		2. DATE OF BIRTH / /	3. SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER - -
A. MAIDEN NAME, IF MARRIED	B. OTHER NAMES USED, IF ANY	C. SPOUSE'S FIRST AND LAST NAME, MIDDLE INITIAL	D. SPOUSE'S SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER - -
4. ADDRESS (Street and Number, City, State and ZIP Code, NOTIFY REGIONAL OFFICE OF NLRB OF NEW ADDRESS IF YOU MOVE)			5. TELEPHONE NUMBER. () -
6. LIST BELOW FRIENDS OR RELATIVES WHO WILL KNOW WHERE YOU ARE IN CASE YOU MOVE:
NAME		ADDRESS	TELEPHONE NUMBER
			() -
			() -
			() -
7. SUPPLY THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION REGARDING YOUR EMPLOYMENT AT: (Name of Company)			CASE NUMBER
A. NAME OF DEPARTMENT YOU WERE IN AT TIME OF UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICE	B. KIND OF JOB YOU HAD AT TIME IF UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICE		C. DATE YOU STARTED WORKING FOR THIS COMPANY / /
D. RATE OF PAY AT TIME OF DISCHARGE		E. NUMBER OF HOURS WORKED EACH WEEK

PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

Purpose: The principle use of the information is to assist the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) in determining and distributing back pay and other monies which may be paid to you as a result of unfair labor practice proceedings under the National Labor Relations Act. Information collected is used by NLRB Compliance Officers to locate your whereabouts in the event the Region is unable to locate you.

Authority: 29 U.S.C. 153(d), 159, 160, 161; 44 U.S.C. 3101; and, the Government Performance and Results Act of 1993, Pub. L. 103-62, 107 Stat. 285 (codified in sections of Title 5, 31, and 39 of the U.S. Code). E.O. 9397, November 22, 1943, authorizes the collection of Social Security Numbers that will be used to identify and locate potential discriminatees.

Routine Uses: The routine uses for the information are fully set forth in the Federal Register, 71 Fed. Reg. 74942-43 (Dec. 13, 2006).

Disclosure: Disclosure is voluntary; however, failure to provide requested information may have a negative impact on the ability of the NLRB to collect and distribute back pay and other monies to which you may be entitled.